

5. PLAYING

By playing, children are able to explore the world! It allows for the development of their imagination, self-confidence and language skills. Imagination helps children think symbolically and work through real-life situations. Play is best when parents join in too!

Suggested Books Found At Your Library!

The Aquanaut* by Jill Heinerth

The Book With No Pictures* by B.J. Novak

Can You Make a Scary Face?* By Jan Thomas

From Head to Toe* by Eric Carle

Night Light* by Nicholas Blechman

Not a Box* by Antoinette Portis

Say Zoop* by Herve Tullet

Tap the Magic Tree* by Christine Matheson

We are in a Book* by Mo Willems

Who am I: Animal Guessing Game* by Robin Page