

MCDEVITT, STANLEY CLARE

EARLY LIFE

Mar 15, 1894

Born in Schomberg, Ontario to James and Mary McDevitt.

1911 Census

Age 17

Lived at 674 Dufferin Street in Toronto, Ontario. He lived with James McDevitt (head of house – father, age 48), Mary McDevitt (mother, age 39), Morris McDevitt (brother, age 15) and Walter McDevitt (brother, age 13).

MILITARY SERVICE

Jun 26, 1915

Attested to the 74th Battalion, Canadian Overseas Expeditionary Force

Attestation
Paper

- Number: 135808
- Present address: 674 Dufferin Street in Toronto, Ontario
- Next of kin given: Mary McDevitt (Mother) in Toronto, Ontario
- Trade or calling: Postman
- Married: No
- Previous military experience: Yes – Canadian Militia for 4 months
- Religion: Church of England
- Physical attributes:
 - Age: 21 years, 4 months
 - Height: 5'9"
 - Complexion: Fair
 - Eyes: Blue
 - Hair: Light brown

AFTER THE WAR

Jun 25, 1919

Married Hilda Augusta Spalding (age 23), daughter of Alfred and Nellie (Johnson) Spalding of Toronto, Ontario.

Age 25

1921 Census

Stanley McDevitt (age 27) worked as a postman and lived at 40 Wallace Avenue in Toronto, Ontario. He lived with his wife, Hilda McDevitt (age 22).

Age 27

1958 Voter List

Lived at 2048 Pharmacy Avenue in Toronto, Ontario with his wife Hilda (age 62). He worked as a clerk at the time.

Age 64